

Please Join Us for the 4th Annual Citython 5k

Join us for 3.1 miles (& a post-race party) in celebration and support of Camp Harbor View. The Citython 5k—a USATF certified race course designed by Dave McGillivray and DMSE Sports—takes runners through the neighborhoods of Back Bay and Kenmore with the start and finish at the Boston Common. With a pre-race runner's village and post-race party, it promises to be a festive and fun morning for everyone!

WHEN: Saturday, November 16, 2019 | 9:00 A.M. Race Start

WHERE: Boston Common

WHO: Citython 5k is for beginner and elite runners alike.

COST: The registration fee for runners is $40. It includes participation in the Citython 5k road race, a bib with a built-in timing chip, admission for one to the post-race party, and three drink tickets. Spectators may purchase a Brunch Pass for $20, which includes admission for one to the post-race party and three drink tickets.

All proceeds support Camp Harbor View.

REGISTRATION: www.campharborview.org/citython

VOLUNTEERS: Citython 5k is looking for volunteers. Click here for details.

About Camp Harbor View

Camp Harbor View changes lives and enhances Boston by exposing underserved youth to the possibilities of a future they may have never envisioned. Launched in 2007, Camp Harbor View serves nearly 1,000 young people from Boston's at-risk neighborhoods each year. The exceptional summer camp experience and year-long programming helps kids to envision new pathways to success by providing life shaping experiences at a critical time in their lives.
